TALKS ON FOREIGN POLITICS

Prince Von Buelow Delivers a Comprehensive Speech.

Berlin, Nov. 30.—Prince Von Buelow, the imperial chancellor, delivered a comprehensive speech in the reichstag relative to foreign politics. He referred to the seriousness of the situation on Morocco and hinted that some of the sacrifices of European lives would not have occurred had the international police provided for by the Algeiras convention been organized in June. He recognized, however, under the circumstances, France and Spain could not have acted otherwise than they had done, and with them rested the whole responsibility. Unfortunately, German private interests had suffered thereby and the German government would be compelled to help the sufferers until the international commission made a settlement. Germany, he declared, was awaiting developments with calm reserve; it was to the interest of Germany and of Europe that affairs in Morocco be calm, and the fundamental principle of this calmness must be the Algeiras act.

Referring to assertions that have been made, that Germany, in recent years, has been on the verge of war, the first time in 1904 during the emperor's voyage in the Mediterranean, and later in consequence of the crisis in Morocco, Chancellor Von Buelow declared that neither Emperor William nor President Loubet thought of war in 1904. The wish that the heads of the two states should meet was expressed, but no invitation was extended and therefore no refusal was given. While the crisis in Morocco never would have led to war, the chancellor continued, Germany was, however, always ready to defend her honor. It was childish, he declared, to think that two great civilized nations would go to war except upon questions affecting the life and interest of their people.

In connection with Emperor William's visit to England, Prince Von Buelow, amid loud applause, expressed the greatest satisfaction. He believed, he said, that the future would show that the strained relations between Germany and England were founded on misunderstandings. Speaking in the name of the reichstag, he declared that the friendliness displayed by the English people was reciprocated in Germany.

INDUSTRIAL CRISIS AT HAND

German Socialist Leader Delivers an Interesting Address.

Berlin, Nov. 30.—The 1908 budget was discussed in the reichstag. Herr Bebel, the Socialist leader, made an interesting address in which he called attention to the condition of the country and declared this indicated that a crisis was at hand. He said the unemployed in Berlin already number between 20,000 and 40,000. Owing to the industrial combines and the price agreements the day of low prices in Germany was passed and the high duties put in force in the month of March, 1906, also were making themselves felt. Consequently, Herr Bebel declared, Germany was paying the highest prices in the world. Holding up a loaf of bread, which caused prolonged merriment among the members, the Socialist leader said:

"They still say this is a big loaf, but a loaf that weighed four and a half pounds eighteen months ago now weighs scarcely three pounds and the price has risen fully 50 per cent."

Suicide Suspected.

Minneapolis, Nov. 30.—Frank D. Myers, a prominent railway official, with visiting cards in the chief commercial clubs of the United States and credentials from leading railways, was found dead in his room at the Nicolet hotel here. Conner Kistler inclines to the theory of suicide. Mr. Myers was formerly traveling passenger agent for the Milwaukee and later for the Pennsylvania.

BUILDING DYNAMITED

Firemen Resort to Desperate Measures to Check Fire.

PROPERTY LOSS IS HEAVY

Hotel and Vaudeville Theater at Hibbing, Minn., Destroyed—Heroic Efforts of Firemen and Citizens Alone Saved Business Portion of City.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 30.—The Miles hotel and vaudeville theater, recently built at a cost of $108,000, was burned to the ground here. When the fire got beyond control the north end of the hotel, next to some wooden buildings, was dynamited.

Only the most desperate efforts of the fire department, seconded by citizens and by the steel corporation apparatus, saved the business section of the town from total destruction. Several blocks of wooden buildings stood directly in the line of the flames, the nearest being separated from the burning hotel by a narrow alley.

So imminent was the danger that the steel corporation closed down its mines, laid pipe lines from its shafts and sent its teams and men to the scene.

The fire started in the furnace room, in which fifty tons of soft coal had just been placed, and the gas from this burning coal made it impossible to get at the fire in the early stages. So far as known no lives were lost, though the coal gas and smoke spread rapidly throughout the hotel and made it impossible to get anything out.

The hotel and contents were insured for $40,000. The losses to individuals will reach $50,000 more, with insurance of $20,000. There was almost no wind, and this probably saved the town.

TROOPS GUARD TAFT.

Reported That Attempt Would Be Made to Blow Up His Train.

Penza, European Russia, Nov. 30.—The police of Ufa were alarmed owing to a report that an attempt would be made to blow up the train bearing Secretary Taft and his party towards St. Petersburg, and fifty soldiers were stationed in the corridors and vestibules of the cars at Ufa and remained on guard all night. The train proceeded slowly and with great caution throughout the night.

Secretary Taft will be received by Emperor Nicholas Tuesday morning next and a reception by Minister of Foreign Affairs Iswolsky has been arranged for Wednesday night, conditional upon the ability of Secretary Taft to delay his departure from St. Petersburg until Thursday, and he will probably leave for Hamburg Thursday noon.

Montgomery Schuyler, Jr. charge d'affaires of the American embassy at St. Petersburg, has notified Secretary Taft that a nobleman will be appointed by Emperor Nicholas as his personal aide during his stay in St. Petersburg.

Mr. Taft knows nothing of the rumor in circulation that Emperor William will meet him at Hamburg.

BOTH FUNDS AVAILABLE.

Court Decides Case in Favor of Indians.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The court of appeals of the District of Columbia has decided the case of Ruben Quick Bear and other Sioux Indians against the government, involving the treaty and trust funds of the tribe, in favor of the Indians. The court held that both these funds are available for payment to the Catholic bureau of Indian missions for the maintenance of Catholic schools at the Rosebud agency, South Dakota. The commissioner of Indian affairs maintained that the law prohibited the use of funds of this nature for sectarian purposes. The lower court held that the trust fund was applicable but not the treaty fund, but the appellate court has decided that both funds were available.

CONFLICT OF AUTHORITY.

Federal and State Courts Clash Over Receivership.

New York, Nov. 30.—Supreme court Justice Seabury, on motion of Attorney General Jackson, appointed Paul Fuller, Melville G. Pailliser and J. Hampden Dougherty receivers for the New York City railway and for the Metropolitan Street railway. This action of Justice Seabury may precipitate a conflict of authority between the state and federal officials over control of the lines of the Metropolitan system, which are already in charge of Adrian Joline and Douglas Robinson, appointees of the United States court.

Mr. Fuller is the attorney who brought the original action against the Metropolitan Securities company, the holding company, and which proceedings were followed by the appointment by Justice Lacombe in the United States court of receivers for both the New York City railway and the Metropolitan Street railway.

Attorney General Jackson attacked this receivership and argued that the federal appointment was in the nature of collusive action and was secured to protect the companies from suits in the state courts where, if anywhere, he maintained, insolvency proceedings should have been brought.

Justice Lacombe took cognizance of this contention, but in making the receivership permanent ruled that the federal action, though admittedly friendly, was properly brought in the United States court, since the defendants were New York corporations and the petitioning creditors residents of New Jersey.

Attorney General Jackson then petitioned the state supreme court for permission to bring actions for the dissolution of the companies and in requesting the appointment of receivers, he alleged that the New York City Railway company was insolvent and that there had been mismanagement of the Metropolitan resulting in a forfeiture of its charter.

In granting these pleas, Justice Seabury directed the receivers named by him to apply to the federal court, on behalf of the state court, to relinquish its control over the property involved.

RECEIVES A WARM WELCOME

William Jennings Bryan Visits New Haven, Conn.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 30.—William Jennings Bryan received a warm welcome in many ways when he came here on a double mission of handing over to the city a marble fountain erected through a bequest in the will of his friend, the late Philo S. Bennett, and of addressing the New England Progressive Democratic league at its annual banquet.

In addressing the league at its business meeting, Mr. Bryan expressed his great appreciation of the work of the league and said he believed that the time is not far away when the members will meet to rejoice over victory won, and he hoped to be with them when they rejoiced. Mr. Bryan said the league's name was a good one, as it stood for action. In the Republican party there are the stand-patters and the reformers. The former element is against progress. The reform element is the life of the organization and, he said, he had no doubt that the reform element will win within the party just as it has won in the Democratic party.

In the next campaign, said Mr. Bryan, the Democratic platform will be progressive, definite, positive and one the people can read and understand.

"We have had in the past," he said, "platforms which read one way before election and another way after election. The people were betrayed. Now there is an awakening of conscience. We have not got to invent principles. Every situation can be met by the old principles. Everything the party stood for has been vindicated; our principles as a party have been vindicated in a negative way at least by the party in power. The signs all point to a great support of these principles."

Mr. Bryan spoke at Woolsey hall to Yale students and at the banquet of the league.

SAW GOEBEL KILLED.

Witness of Tragedy Testifies in Trial of Caleb Powers.

Georgetown, Ky., Nov. 30.—In the Caleb Powers trial, R. H. Berryman, the third witness introduced, said he was an eyewitness of the tragedy, and his testimony was the sensation of the proceedings. The witness said he was entering the state house grounds when he saw Senator Goebel and Colonel Jack Chinn walking a short distance in front of him. He heard a shot which he said apparently came from the window of the secretary of state's office. Goebel, the witness said, sank slowly to the ground and finally relied on his back.

HER ORDEAL IS ENDED

Testimony in Mrs. Bradley's Case Concluded.

DEFENDANT VERY PLEASED

Expresses Relief at the Fact That It Is All Over—Government Experts Declare That the Woman is Not Insane.

Washington, Nov. 30.—"Oh, I am so glad it is all over at last." These words were uttered by Mrs. Annie M. Bradley, charged with the murder of Former Senator Arthur M. Brown of Utah, as she with a smile, was led from the courtroom to the prison van, which was to take her back to jail. The presentation of evidence had just been concluded and court adjourned for the day. Justice Stafford announced that an agreement had been reached among counsel for four hours of argument on each side. These will be completed Monday afternoon, and Justice Stafford said he would then deliver his charge and give the case to the jury.

The testimony of the two government insanity experts, Dr. Brush of Baltimore and Dr. Smith Jelliffe of New York, was the feature of the proceedings. Both of these alienists declaring that there was nothing in the record of the case to indicate that Mrs. Bradley was insane. Counsel for the defense attempted to impeach the testimony of these experts by showing that they had been called for the government and that as a matter of course they were testifying in the interest of the government. Each of them repudiated this charge and declared that they would have testified to the insanity of Mrs. Bradley as readily as they testified to her sanity had they found her to be insane. They were questioned at length and both cited the acts of the defendant, testified to by witnesses, as showing her to be sane.

Rev. David R. Utter, pastor of the Unitarian church of Denver, who in former testimony has been referred to as "the priest," was placed on the stand. He was Mrs. Bradley's pastor in Salt Lake City and testified to a conversation he had with her in 1905, she saying in effect, according to his testimony, that Senator Brown would marry her when a gun was placed before him, but the pastor added he did not understand that she proposed shooting him. He rather thought some one else would undertake to force Brown to marry her.

Mrs. Bradley was recalled and stated that she had no recollection of such a conversation. The pastor occupied a seat at her side during most of the day and appeared to sympathize with her in her predicament. Dr. Henry D. Fry of this city, an authority on woman's diseases, was expected to be called by the government to contradict the testimony of Dr. Wilfred Barton for the defense, but it was decided not to call him.

THE season for killing big game, deer and moose, ends Nov. 30, but the law allows any person who is in lawful possession of a license and has lawfully killed one of these animals to be in possession of the same for five days thereafter and by obtaining permission from the game commission the game may be retained in possession of the party for his own use only. The additional five days allowed are for the purpose of giving hunters a chance to get their game out of the woods and to their homes after the last day for killing has expired.

SPEAKING of the Indians on the reservation Indian Agent Frater has the following to say of the Chippewas to a Bemidji Pioneer reporter: "The Indians are going into the winter in better shape, I should say, than a year ago. They have had good berry and rice crops and some of them have earned sums of money working. Liquor is the only drawback with the Indians. I get along with them very nicely. It would seem that the Indians are losing ground as to population. They are decreasing gradually instead of increasing. There have been more deaths than births the past year."

There is no other treatment for catarrh that in any way resembles Hyomei, none that gives such quick curative results and lasting satisfaction, no medicine that can take its place, none that can be sold on a guarantee like this, to refund the money unless it cures.

Catarrh is a germ disease and can be cured only by breathing Hyomei, so that the most remote air cells in the nose, throat and lungs are reached by its antiseptic healing powers. In this way all catarrhal germs are killed, the irritated mucous membrane is healed and catarrh is driven from the system.

This wonderful medicated air treatment does not drug and derange the stomach, but is breathed through a little pocket inhaler that goes with every dollar outfit.

JOHN L. WERDIN SAYS SON WAS MURDERED

Father Utterly Disbelieves that His Son Would Take His Own Life

DECLARES NOTE WAS A FORGERY

Police and Coroner Still Believe that There is no Doubt that it Was Suicide

John L. Werdin, of Eden Valley, father of Jerome L. Werdin, arrived in the city last night. Mr. Werdin does not believe that his son committed suicide but believes that he was murdered and states that while he is a poor man he will give $100 reward for the arrest and conviction of the murderer. He will also appeal to the governor to offer a reward.

Reasons for His Belief.

Mr. Werdin bases his belief on the fact that his son was murdered on the utter absence of any reason for his taking his own life. The young man was one who never drank he says and Mr. Werdin believes that the bottle of whiskey was placed in his pocket by the murderer. He also believes that the note was a forgery. While there was a story around yesterday to the effect that he took a young lady to the dance Thanksgiving night and that she left him and went home with another young man, this has proven false. He took a young lady there and took her home. Of course she does not wish her name mentioned in the matter, but she states that he showed no signs of having been drinking. This does not agree with some reports that were in circulation yesterday, but is doubtless correct and adds even more to the mystery surrounding the matter.

The theory of Mr. Werdin is that some enemy of his son was laying in wait for him at the elevator office and that as soon as he entered the office he was shot from behind and then from the side of the head. The murderers, he believes then placed the note and the nearly emptied whiskey bottle in his overcoat pocket. Mr. Werdin states that he is strengthened in his belief that his son was a victim of foul play by the fact that Officers Hurley and Barney roused him at his hotel in the early hours of this morning and told him that they knew of two parties, who had made threats that they would "Get him, yet."

Threat Clue Proves Worthless.

Chief of Police McGovern was seen this forenoon regarding these threats. He stated that a short time ago Werdin was a witness against a couple of parties who were up in the municipal court for assault and who afterwards, according to reports in circulation, threatened to get even with him. Mr. McGovern made an investigation this morning and found that the parties in question, who are employed at the shops, were both at work yesterday and could by no possibility have been at the elevator at that time, thus effectually disposing of this clue.

Were More than Two Shots Fired?

At least two persons heard the shots fired which caused his death. John Cochran left his shop at 8:25 that morning to go to the Northern Pacific Sanitarium to shave the patients. It is his custom to look at the clock in the office and also in the sanitarium when he goes there to work. On this occasion he walked up Front street and when in front of the Antlers hotel he heard the report of a gun of some sort which sounded light, like a 22 rifle. He saw a switch engine apparently heading for the west side of the river and started on a run for the Fourth street crossing in the hopes of catching a ride. When alongside the building of the Brainerd Grocery company he heard another shot, this time much louder and heavier. The switch engine stopped and started east again and Mr. Cochran turned and went south to Laurel street and out to the sanitarium. When he reached there and was lathering the first man he looked up at the clock and it was five minutes to nine.

Severin Koop, a son of John Koop, is said to have heard the shots, but he was out hunting today when a DISPATCH representative called at his father's residence. One of the members of the family, however, said she understood that it was about 11 o'clock that he heard the shots. If this is so they evidently were not the same shots heard by John Cochran, and the hour of the shooting is still uncertain.

Tried to Buy Cartridges.

Probably among the last persons who saw Mr. Werdin before he shot himself Friday were Herbert Paine and Roy Bennett, who are in charge of R. D. King's confectionery and sporting goods store. He went into that place about half past eight in the morning and wanted to buy two or three cartridges to fit a 32 revolver. The boys would not break a box and he said he only wanted two or three and left without getting any. Whether he already had three shells in the gun and wanted to fill the other chambers, or whether he afterwards got shells elsewhere is not known as yet.

An examination of the wounds showed that they were made, not with 32 calibre bullets, but with 32-calibre shot cartridges. Coroner Gibson called in a couple of surgeons, who stated that a post mortem could throw no light on the question as to which wound caused death. He also decided that there was no need of an inquest.

B. C. McNamara, undertaker for D. M. Clark, went to the elevator office with Coroner Gibson and was there before the man died. He does not believe that the shots heard by John Cochran were the report of the gun which killed Werdin. He states that the blood was flowing freely, like water from a faucet, as he puts it, when he arrived and was not coagulated, as would have been the case had the shooting occurred at the time reports were heard by Mr. Cochran.

His Accounts Apparently Straight.

W. L. Smith, of Minneapolis, the auditor of the Monarch Elevator company, arrived in the city last night and was going over the affairs of the company. When seen by a DISPATCH representative this forenoon he stated that so far as they could tell without shipping out the grain in the elevator his accounts were perfectly straight and the company had found his work here satisfactory.

Remains Taken to Eden Valley.

Mr. Werdin left with the remains of his son on the 1:20 train today and expects to reach his home in Eden Valley home time tonight. Jerome Lloyd Werdin, the deceased, would have been twenty years of age had he lived until January 1, 1908. He had only lived in Brainerd about six weeks, but had made many friends to whom his death came as a shock and who will unite in extending their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved parents in the loss of their only child.

WILL BE TAKEN TO COURT

Fight Over a Murdered Man's Hoarded Money.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 30.—The purchase price of a West Virginia farm, $11,000, for which one man was murdered and two other men were hanged after conviction of the murder, has been found, and now a contest is to be waged in the courts for the money between heirs of the murdered man and the purchaser of the house in which the money was concealed.

A carpenter repairing the old Harvey mansion had occasion to tear up a floor. Under it he found a strong box containing $11,000, mostly in gold. The mansion was owned and occupied by Colonel James Harvey until March, 1900, when he was murdered. Shortly before his murder he had sold a farm for $11,000.

John Mooney and Harry Friday were convicted and hanged for the crime. The finding of the money prompts the theory that the men hanged learned of Harvey receiving the currency and killed him during an effort to steal it.

Since the murder A. S. Bell bought the old Harvey farm, on which the money was found, according to his claims, with "the household goods and all appurtenances thereto" and under this claims the $11,000. Heirs of Harvey claim the $11,000 and expect to file suit to recover it.

FORAKER INTENDS TO FIGHT

Will Try to Get the Ohio Republican Delegation.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Senator J. B. Foraker has made it clearly known that he will contest the Ohio delegation to the Republican national convention with Mr. Taft. This decision is contained in a letter to Conrad J. Mattern, vice president of the Ohio Republican league, who forwarded Mr. Foraker a copy of the resolutions adopted by the advisory and executive committee of the league endorsing Mr. Foraker for the senatorship and for the presidential nomination. Mr. Foraker defends his course in relation to the passage of the railroad rate bill and insists that the necessity of the railroads of the country to spend millions of dollars annually in increasing their facilities makes this a bad time to hamper the roads in any unnecessary way by legislation.

Senator Foraker says he is gratified by the endorsement of the committee at this time because it is a flat rebuke to the suggestion that the office of United States senator is to be stripped of all the real honor attached to it by making its incumbent a mere agent to register the decrees of somebody else.

WILL DEFEND YOUNG.

Attorney General of Missouri to Argue Case for Minnesotan.

St. Louis, Nov. 30.—Attorney General Hadley has departed for Washington, D. C., to appear before the supreme court of the United States to argue a motion to quash the injunction in the case against Attorney General Edward T. Young of Minnesota. F. W. Lehmann of St. Louis will assist as special counsel.

The injunction proceedings arise from the attempt by Attorney General Young to enforce the 2-cent passenger rate law in Minnesota and were brought by the Northern Pacific Railroad company.

A bad accident occurred in Superior between the station and Central avenue, about 5:50 this morning, when a Great Northern passenger train collided with a Northern Pacific railroad transfer train. Little is also known as to the damage to rolling stock.

FIRST SIGN IS IN THE BACK

Bright's Disease is Spreading and it's Best to Watch Danger Signals

TOO MUCH HERE NOW

Valuable Prescription Given
Which Anyone Can Easily Prepare at Small Cost

Take care of backache. A great many cases of kidney complaint are reported about here, also bladder trouble and rheumatism.

An authority once stated that pain in the back, loins or region of the kidneys is the danger signal nature hangs out to notify the sufferer that there is something wrong with the kidneys, which should receive immediate attention. Only vegetable treatment should be administered and absolutely no strongly alcoholic patent medicines, which are harmful to the kidneys and bladder.

The following prescription, while simple, harmless and inexpensive, is known and recognized as a sovereign remedy for kidney complaint. The ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and anyone can mix them: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

This preparation is said to restore the natural function of the kidneys, so they will sift and strain the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood, purifying it and relieving rheumatism. Backache will be relieved, the urine will be neutralized and cleared and no longer a cause of irritation, thereby overcoming such symptoms as weak bladder, painful, frequent and other urinary difficulties.

This is worth trying and may prove just what many people here need.

No home is so pleasant, regardless of the comforts that money will buy, as when the entire family is in perfect health. A bottle of Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup costs 50 cents. It will cure every member of the family of constipation, sick headache or stomach trouble.—H. P. Dunn.

VICTORY FOR WALSH.

Court Again Rules in Favor of the Chicago Banker.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Another effort to get before the jury personal accounts of John R. Walsh, the former president of the Chicago National bank, who is on trial charged with misapplying funds, failed in the United States district court. After an argument lasting several hours Judge Anderson again ruled against the contentions of the government attorneys, declaring that to allow B. B. McKay, Walsh's private bookkeeper, to testify about the defendant's personal checks would put Walsh in the position of testifying against himself.

ON NEW CERTIFICATES

Final Closing of Allotments Is Announced.

NO FURTHER SUBSCRIPTIONS

Practically All the Certificates Have Been Awarded to National Banks. Information as to Amount of the Allotments Is Withheld.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The final closing of allotments on the 3 per cent one-year certificates has been definitely announced by Secretary Cortelyou. He declared that no allotments had been made or would be made after his announcement of Wednesday night that no further subscriptions would be considered. The point was not quite clear until his latest statement, that some few allotments might not be made from subscriptions already in hand on Wednesday. As the matter stands, practically all the allotments are to national banks, which have agreed to take out circulation and in the majority of cases have indicated a willingness to surrender the certificates before maturity upon payment of accrued interest on the date of redemption. Information is still withheld at the treasury as to the amount of the allotments made, but such information as is obtainable indicates that the total will not materially exceed $25,000,000.

If this proves to be the case, and a considerable portion of the certificates are delivered on the condition that they shall be surrendered in six months, with interest to that time, or even for a shorter period, it becomes possible to calculate roughly the cost of the issue in interest. There appears to be no doubt that by far the larger part of the amount allotted, probably at least three-fifths, is subject to redemption with accrued interest within three months. On the basis of an issue of $25,000,000 this would amount to the redemption of $15,000,000 with interest to the amount of 1½ per cent, which would require $225,000 for the interest payment. If $10,000,000 of the certificates ran the full period of one year the interest payments at 3 per cent would come $300,000. These two sums, therefore, making a total of $525,000, would represent the entire cost of the issue of certificates to the treasury, outside the trifling incidental expenses of issues. This would be at the rate of about two-thirds of a cent per capita for the population of the United States.

Offers for Panama Canal Bonds.

The offers for the Panama canal 2 per cent bonds are still reaching the treasury in large numbers. They will remain unopened until the time for receipt of subscriptions closes. The number of bids closely approximates the number received for the loan of July 20, 1906, when an offer of $30,000,000 was subscribed to the amount of $446,000,000 or about fifteen times the amount offered. Nothing is known yet in regard to the amount of bids, which may differ greatly from the amount in 1906, as the result of a greater or less number of large syndicate bids. It is hardly expected that the price obtained will equal that of 1906, which was 104.08 per cent, but in view of the value of the bonds as security for circulation, it is expected that a fair premium will be paid.

The limitation of the issue of one-year certificates to $25,000,000 or less is regarded by bankers here as a wise step in view of its influence in preventing an unnecessary expansion of bank note circulation. The maximum expansion possible upon the new issue will stand at $75,000,000, instead of $150,000,000, as was possible if the entire amount first suggested had been allotted, and it is not believed that anything like this maximum will be attained. If $20,000,000 in new bank note circulation is secured by certificates subject to call next spring, this amount can easily be retired without imposing so serious a burden upon the banks as if the amount dealt with were larger. The treasury working balance, according to the terms of deposit which have been officially announced, will be increased about $11,250,000 when all the new securities are delivered. This represents 10 per cent of the amount of the Panama bonds and one-quarter of the amount of one-year certificates.

Secretary Cortelyou continues to listen attentively to representations in regard to currency measures, but does not commit himself beyond the general necessity for intelligent legislation. The project of a central bank of issue seems to have many supporters among bankers and members of congress arriving here and it is already certain that several comprehensive bills on the subject will be introduced. One of these will probably embody the views of George E. Roberts, president of the Commercial National bank of Chicago, who with Comptroller Ridgeley is among those who have recently become convinced that such a measure is the best cure for monetary difficulties.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the delicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.
